IN-STATE TUITION FAQs

Q: Who qualifies for in-state tuition under Prop. 308?

A: A qualifying non-citizen student, other than the nonimmigrant aliens described under 8 U.S. Code § 1101(a)(15), is eligible for in-state tuition under Prop. 308, regardless of immigration status, if the student meets both of the following criteria:

1. The student attended any public or private high school or homeschool equivalent while physically present in Arizona for at least two years; and
2. The student graduated from any public or private high school or homeschool equivalent in Arizona or obtained a high school equivalency diploma in Arizona, i.e., a GED.

Q: Do the two years of physical presence in Arizona while attending high school need to be consecutive?

A: No. Students do not need to have two years of consecutive presence. However, to be eligible, they still must provide documentation that they both:

1. Attended any public or private high school option or homeschool equivalent while physically present in Arizona for at least two years; and
2. Graduated from a public or private high school option or homeschool equivalent or obtained a high school equivalency diploma in Arizona.

A: Nonimmigrant aliens described under 8 U.S. C. § 1101(a)(15) are not eligible for in-state tuition under Prop. 308. This includes, but is not limited to, students who hold F1, F2, J1, H4 or H1 visas. For a complete list, please look at 8 U.S. C. § 1101\(a\)\(15\).

Q: Does Prop. 308 change the eligibility for paying in-state tuition under A.R.S. § 15-1802?

A: No. Anyone eligible for in-state tuition prior to Prop. 308 remains eligible.

Q: Do the qualifying non-citizen students eligible for in-state tuition under Prop. 308 also need to prove domicile under A.R.S. § 15-1802?

A: No. A qualifying non-citizen student will pay in-state tuition if they meet the requirements of A.R.S. § 15-1803(B):

Q: What other scholarships are the students impacted by Prop. 308 now eligible to apply for?

A: Arizona's public universities offer a number of financial aid opportunities, including merit
